One Million Lovely Letters is one woman's inspirational journey to recovery. A witty and uplifting testament to the power of words to heal the heart and mind. As featured on 'Jodi's Lovely Letters', part of the popular BBC One series 'Our Lives'. In the summer of 2011, aged only 22, Jodi Ann Bickley contracted a serious brain infection that would change her life forever. Jodi had been performing at Camp Bestival on the Isle of Wight. Returning with pockets full of glitter, she thought the happy memories would last forever. A week later, writhing in pain on the doctor's surgery floor, Jodi found out that she had been bitten by a tick and contracted a serious brain infection. Learning to write and walk again was just the start of the battle. In the months that followed Jodi struggled with the ups and downs of her health and the impact it had on her loved ones. Some days Jodi found herself wondering whether she could go on. She had two choices: either to give up now or do something meaningful with the time she had been given. Jodi chose the latter. This is the story how she turned her life around. 'An extraordinary woman.' Stephen Fry 'There is so much emotion in these pages that we challenge you not to cry.' Cosmopolitan 'It's a fantastic book, from a fantastic wordsmith, and I'm so proud of how much Jodi has achieved since I've known her. Proper chuffed. An epistolary novel set on a fictional island off the South Carolina coastline, 'Ella Minnow Pea' brings readers to the hometown of Nevin Nollop, inventor of the pangram 'The Quick Brown Fox Jumps Over the Lazy Dog'. Deified for his achievement in life, Nevin has been honored in death with a monument featuring his famous phrase. One day, however, the letter 'Z' falls from the monument, and some of the islanders interpret the missing tile as a message from beyond the grave. The letter 'Z' is banned from use. On an island where the residents pride them-selves on their love of language, this is seen as a tragedy. They are still reeling from the shock when another tile falls. And then another... In his charming debut, first published in 2001, Mark Dunn took readers on a journey through the eyes of Ella Minnow Pea, a young woman forced to create another clever turn of phrase in order to save the islanders ' beloved language.

"It was such a unique and introspective experience, seeing the different kinds of love Serenity had experienced through her life and to be able to learn from something that didn't happen to me but felt like a distant memory." Inspired by 'To All the Boys I've Loved Before'.. Serenity likes writing on paper. From planning assignments to seeking closure by writing love letters. Serenity has always admired the art of romance. When did letters become traditional? She grew up with love being apparent in all aspects of life. Every time, she loved someone, she gave her all and couldn't resist loving them back with every piece of her heart. When they weren't a part of her life anymore, she found comfort in writing down her thoughts and feelings on pieces of paper. These seven boys contributed something to her life, whether it was Troye's enthusiasm, Mark's confusion, August's teachings, Silas' friendliness. Justin's loyalty, Kaleb's mystery and Raymond's love. She knew closure was impossible. So, she wrote. The letters stayed hidden away until one drunk night, Serenity sent them. Now there is no way of undoing her actions and she simply isn't ready to face the consequences of her new future being dictated by the boys from her past.
