Answer: Half a Life, Darin Strauss (710 words)

It took Strauss half a life to write this book. How do you think it would have differed if he'd tried to write it at the time? How would it be different if he were to have waited another 18 years? Strauss writes that he thought of college as a "witness protection program" - he went off to school and told basically no one about the accident.

Reading guide for Half a Life by Darin Strauss

Half A Life Darin Strauss I' m very interested in reading this book for one reason...my child died in a car accident. I know that I've had a lot of grief and angry toward the man who took my son away from me. It will be interesting to read about the other persons' feelings. Just maybe this book will help me deal with this anger. Vivian
