Jane is the first reimagining of the legendary Tarzan story from Jane's point of view, and the first version by a female writer that's fully authorized and endorsed by the Edgar Rice Burroughs estate. Set in the early 1900s, Jane is both a page-turning adventure novel (complete with lush jungle settings, a devious villain, and turn-of-the-century science) and an unlikely yet intimate love story

Jane, Robin Maxwell

Robin Maxwell's book does this brilliantly. Not only do Tarzan and Jane transform into a living, breathing couple who bring the Tarzan saga to new life, but the thrills and adventure leap off the page in the grand tradition of Edgar Rice Burroughs himself." —John R. Burroughs, Grandson of Edgar Rice Burroughs
