Loving My Season Of Good

When we love the season we are in... God meets us where we are with opportunities for growth and maturity...if we are open to it. God shows us new things about Himself and His character when we slow down. God tugs our heart in His direction--in His own grand plans verses our own agenda.

The Bible calls this “the fleeting pleasures of sin” in Hebrews 11:25. Of course sin feels good. Nobody would do it, otherwise. Nobody sins out of duty. We do it because it feels good, and the reason we don't hate these behaviors is because we love them. They feel good and we like to feel good, so we like them.

The Byrds were a popular American rock band formed in Los Angeles, California in 1964. They are considered one of the most important and influential bands of the 1960s. Their music bridged the gaps between the socially and spiritually conscious folk music of Bob Dylan, the studio trickery of The Beach Boys, and the sardonic rock of The Beatles. Some of their trademark songs include pop versions ...
