The topic of virtue was not neglected in modern moral philosophy, as some commentators think. But modern philosophers understood virtue in an un-Aristotelian manner, as the habit of obeying the law — the moral or natural law. This seems to allow no room for the insight of the virtuous agent. But natural law theorists worked with a distinction, derived from Grotius and Pufendorf, between ...

The Misfortune of Virtue

Elvenking Lyrics: "The Misfortune Of Virtue". Blind human beings. Loading on other's shoulders the fruit of their fears. The holes in their souls are filled by thick delusions. Shallow assumptions and words rubbed in the face. Of the ones who cannot bear the weight. Of this mess – the distress - and the anguish.
